

Effective Online Training

Introduction

With the current climate requiring training to move online and become virtual, there is a greater need for trainers to understand and develop their online learning packages.

This half-day session, based on established e-learning theories, will offer delegates the tools and principles to deliver effective online training.

This session is suitable for anyone who wants to make the most of online tools for teaching and learning.

Please be advised that this session will take place virtually. Joining instructions will be emailed to confirmed bookings 24 hours before the course start date.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the session, delegates will be able to:

- Evaluate the options available for online training.
- Describe and explain their role as trainer.
- Apply pedagogy theory to online sessions.
- Identify tools and strategies to help to transform your training.
